Idaho Native, Community Leader, Broker and REALTOR® Tracy Kasper
Announces her Bid for 2022 First Vice President of the National Association of REALTORS®

CALDWELL, Idaho – REALTOR® and Broker, Tracy Kasper, owner of Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices Silverhawk Realty announces that she will be running for 2022 First Vice President of the National Association of REALTORS® (NAR), the largest trade organization in the United States. NAR serves more than 1.4 million members who make up all aspects of the residential and commercial real estate industry.

“It is an honor to have so much support right out of the gate,” said Kasper. “Real estate has not only been a great career, but it is my passion. Our organization has such a positive influence on creating and advancing economic growth in each of the communities where our members live, we create and shape effective public policy and ultimately we help ensure the American dream becomes a reality through home ownership.”

Kasper has put together a 14-person team with diverse backgrounds, representing different industry needs. Kasper believes in leadership at all levels and understands that local and state associations play a key role in each of our cities and states. If elected as 2022 First Vice President of NAR, Kasper will be a voice to bring solutions, ideas and help increase opportunities for REALTORS®, consumers and communities.

“I have dedicated my life to real estate and my community. Through my leadership roles, as a REALTOR® and as a Broker, as well as a community member, I have always been rooted in doing what I can to give back. I have a proven record of rolling up my sleeves and working hard,” said Kasper.

If elected, Kasper will be the first Idahoan voted to a national office of the National Association of REALTORS®. To find out more about Kasper, her leadership experience and commitment to service, please visit her website, TracyKasperforNAR.com
